

LEVEL

PRE-ADJUSTED ARRANGEMENTS

ADJUSTMENTS FOR 2023

Higher

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Two sections do all questions

Section A (150 marks)

Concepts and Skills

- No choice
- Six questions x 25 marks
- 150 marks.

Section B (150 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- No choice
- Two or three or four questions
- Marks per question may vary
- 150 marks

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Two sections with limited choice in each section

Section A (150 marks)

Concepts and Skills

- Six questions x 30 marks
- Do five questions
- 150 marks.

The questions in Section A of the paper will be similar in content and length to those that the candidates will be familiar with from previous years, but they will be required to attempt one less question.

Section B (150 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- Four questions x 50 marks
- Do three questions
- 150 marks

In Section B, where candidates may choose to answer any 3 of the 4 questions, it is intended that the amount of material presented in each question will be reduced somewhat from what might be typically expected in a 50-mark question at this level.

LEVEL

PRE-ADJUSTED ARRANGEMENTS

ADJUSTMENTS FOR 2023

Ordinary

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Two sections do all questions

Section A (150 marks)

Concepts and Skills

- No choice
- Six Questions x 25 marks
- 150 marks.

Section B (150 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- No choice
- Two or three or four questions
- Marks per question may vary
- 150 marks.

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

2 sections with limited choice in each section

Section A (150 Marks)

Concepts and Skills

- Six Questions x 30 marks
- Do five questions
- 150 marks.

The questions in Section A of the paper will be similar in content and length to those that the candidates will be familiar with from previous years, but they will be required to attempt one less question.

Section B (150 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- Four questions x 50 marks
- Do three questions
- 150 marks.

In Section B, where candidates may choose to answer any 3 of the 4 questions, it is intended that the amount of material presented in each question will be reduced somewhat from what might be typically expected in a 50-mark question at this level.

LEVEL

PRE-ADJUSTED ARRANGEMENTS

ADJUSTMENTS FOR 2023

Foundation

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Two sections do all questions

Section A (200 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- No choice
- Eight Questions x 25 marks
- 200 marks

Section B (100 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- No choice
- Two or three questions
- Marks per question may vary
- 100 marks

WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Two sections with limited choice in each section

Section A (210 marks)

Concepts and Skills

- Eight Questions x 30 marks
- Do seven questions
- 210 marks.

The questions in Section A of the paper will be similar in content and length to those that the candidates will be familiar with from previous years, but they will be required to attempt one less question.

Section B (90 marks)

Contexts and Applications

- Three questions x 45 marks
- Do two questions
- 90 marks.

In Section B, where candidates may choose to answer any 2 of the 3 questions presented, it is intended that the amount of material presented in each question will be reduced somewhat from what might be typically expected in a 45-mark question at this level.